

BECKMAN COULTER FOUNDATION FACT SHEET

History: The Beckman Coulter Foundation is a private foundation established in 2007 as an important part of Beckman Coulter's overall charitable efforts.

Mission: Serving as the philanthropic arm of Beckman Coulter, the Foundation's mission is to fulfill Beckman Coulter's philanthropic goals by supporting programs and efforts in the communities in which the company does business.

Focus: The Beckman Coulter Foundation provides funding to non-profit organizations, charities and academia whose programs and efforts are focused around science, science education and healthcare related research that improves patient health and the quality of life.

Objective: The Beckman Coulter Foundation strives to support initiatives that are aligned with Beckman Coulter's core strategies and values.

Programs: Under its umbrella, the Beckman Coulter Foundation administers several programs which include: a Grants Program, Educational Matching Gifts Program, Employee Volunteer Program and Disaster Relief Campaigns.

- Grants: Since its establishment, the Beckman Coulter Foundation has provided more than 3 million dollars of funding toward grants in the areas of: Clinical Fellowships, Clinical Laboratory Science Programs, President's Scholars Programs, Science Enrichment and numerous other educational and research-based programs.
- Educational Matching: As part of the Foundation's overall support of education, the Beckman Coulter Foundation matches nearly 250 gifts each year made by Beckman Coulter employees to the educational institutions of their choice up to $10,000 per employee, per calendar year.
- Employee Volunteer Program: The Beckman Coulter Foundation supports the outstanding volunteer efforts of Beckman Coulter employees by sponsoring numerous volunteer events in the communities in which Beckman Coulter employees work and live. The Foundation matches monies raised by employees up to $100 per employee, per event.
- Disaster Relief Campaigns: Through established partnerships with the American Red Cross, AmeriCares and Feeding America, the Beckman Coulter Foundation has implemented several matching gift disaster relief campaigns to provide emergency aid to victims, examples include: the Japan Earthquake and Tsunami, Haiti Earthquake, California Wildfires, Midwest Floods and China Earthquake. Since 2007, the Foundation has matched over $280,000 in disaster relief donations made by Beckman Coulter employees.